DARING YOUNG HORSETHIEF

Fourteen Year Old Frank
Grant Was Captured Here
Yesterday

STOLE INDIANAPOLIS TEAM

Drove Horses Away From Benefactor's Home—Caught With Gang of Hoboes

Fourteen year old Frank Grant, a youthful horse thief, who received the inspiration of successful "get aways" with horses from the pages of the poisonous five-cent yellow back novels, was arrested in this city yesterday about noon by Marshall Price and Officer Pea.

The boy stole a team of gray horses from Dr. J. W. Webb of 4120 East Washington street, Saturday forenoon, and the sheriffs, police officers, members of the Horse Thief Detective Association and two friends of the physicians had been trying to round up the daring young thief since Saturday.

The police are of the opinion that the boy belongs to an organization which has been successfully working in Indiana for several months, and they used him to accept temporary positions in order to see how the land laid in order to effect an easy "get away."

He admitted being in Marion and Kokomo about three weeks ago, the time a wholesale arrest of a gang was made there. When asked if he knew about the young girl who was leader of that band he smiled and said: "You bet yer—she was a corker. But I only knew about her. That is, she a—I—I mean just read about her." His face flushed up when he made this confession, and he dropped his head. Afterwards he said he meant he was in Marion, Ohio.

The boy was dressed in a cheap, ill-kept suit of clothes, and his face and hands were covered with dirt. When arrested he told a straightforward story, in an unconcerned manner, and the whole proceedings seemed to amuse him rather than scare him. He said: "I went to work for doc about three days ago, an' Saturday he sent me out to hitchup the team. All of a sudden I took a notion to that I'd like to go back home to Peoria, Ohio, so I jist pitched in some feed, an' made out. I didn't know which way to go, but I jist kept drivin'. Party soon I brought up in a town called Southport, and after I asked several people about directions I turned east. When I got out of Southport, the horses—they were nothin' but three year olds—go tscared at a durn bull and run off. Gee, I wuz scared. I jist thought here's what I get. I suppose I will get killed now. I tried to sot the horses but they kept on agoin' like mad, when all of a sudden they run into a telephone pole and broke the pole of the buggy. I didn't know what to do fer awhile, but party soon tied them and went over to a farmer's house and give him an awful stall. He was an easy mark, an stood fer my tough luck story about being in a hurry. And I was in a hurry," he said laughing.

"I told him I would leave one of the horses there and the broken buggy, if he would lend me another buggy. It wuz all sunshine to him, so I started to again driving the best horse of the two. I didn't mean to steal 'em or sell 'em, I jist wanted to make the Ohio State line then I wuz goin' to write a tell doc where his horses were at. That night I got to Greenfield, and I drove out in the country and stopped to feed the horse. I went to a farmer's house, a' he told me they were on my trail, and said I had better git, and git quick. He gave me a dime, and me thinking the jig wuz up, I started to run south through a field. By and by I come out on a road, and say, maybe you think I wuzn't hungry. It wuz dark an' I went to a house and they let me stay all night. Sunday morning I got up and walked about six miles to Fountaintown. I waited there till a freight came along an' I hopped her. I thought I wuz safe then, but when I got here, the cops nailed me. But I never meant to steal them horses that's honest," he concluded assuringly.

Marshal Price received word Saturday to be on the lookout for the boy, and Sunday about noon received a wire from Town Marshal Frank Swift, of Morristown that the boy was supposed to be on the freight train. Together with Officer Pea he went down to the C. H. & D. depot, flagged the freight and "surrounded it." In the raid they drew a capital prize of six "hoboes," and among them was the boy who answered the description sent out. He was closely questioned, and finally admitted his guilt. But he declared that the two hoboes who were in the car with him, had nothing to do with the theft, and knew nothing of it. The arrest of the six men was only accomplished by the officers drawing guns on them as they started to run.

All six were taken to jail to be held for examination. About three hours after the arrest was made, Fred Mueller, a druggist who lives next door to Dr. Webb, and another friend of the doctor, who was on the trail of the boy, arrived here and went to the county jail where the boy told them where he had left the horses. These men were about two hours behind the boy at Greenfield, when he abandoned the last horse.

The horses were recovered and taken back to Indianapolis.

Dr. J. W. Webb, accompanied by a detective of the Indianapolis police force were here last night and took the boy back to Indianapolis.

This morning the prisoners in the county jail here declare the boy told them stories of many successful horse thefts, which would read like fiction. He was an exceedingly bright boy for one of his years, and seemed to possess that shrewdness with which so many thieves and criminals are gifted. The Indianapolis authorities will make a thorough investigation of the matter, and are of the opinion that the boy has been identified with the gang of horse thieves who have so successfully stolen horses in this State for many months. He is talkative and it is hoped that will "turkey" on some of his pals, men older in years, who used the young lad as he would not arouse suspicion.

DAMAGE SUIT IS POSTPONED

Suit Against Sheriff of Henry County For False Imprison-

The damage suit of George Latham and Frank Nales against Charles Christopher, which was set for trial in the circuit court today, was postponed at the cost of defendant.

All parties concerned are from New Castle, and Christopher was formerly sheriff of Henry county. The two young men are suing for damages for alleged false imprisonment in connection with the Haley Gipe murder cases which was tried here.

A number of witnesses and several attorneys were here for the trial today.

The cases was brought here on a change of venue.

VOLUNTARILY SUBSCRIBES AN ADDITIONAL FIFTY

Secretary Scudder of the Improvement Association reports another surprise in the way of unsolicited subscriptions. John S. Beale called at his office recently to pay $50 on the original subscription, and while there he added: "Well, I guess we might as well add another fifty to that, let's make it a hundred." And he gave his check for $100.

BOLD DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP TODAY

Wilbur Chance, a Young Farmer is Beaten up and Robbed in an Alley

ELMER MURPHY ACCUSED

Robbery Occured Within the Shadow of Our Magnificent Temple of Justice

One of the boldest things which ever occurred in this community was the daylight hold-up this afternoon, in which Wilbur Chance, a young farmer, was beaten up and robbed of ten dollars. The robbery occurred about three o'clock in the rear of Simp Davis' livery barn.

Young Chance, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chance, on the Suvanna Lewis farm, one mile and a half east of Fairview, was making preparations to leave town and had ordered his rig in the livery barn, when he alleges he was enticed to the rear of the barn by Elmer Murphy, a character known about town as "Schlitz," who struck him a stunning blow. When he regained his senses, Murphy was searching his pockets, and made away with ten dollars. Chance was afterwards found by Elmer Pea.

He was taken to jail where he told his story. Marshal Price and Officer Pea immediately set out to make arrests. It was understood that Murphy had two accomplices, and the officers arrested Charles Wolfe as being interested in the holdup.

He stoutly denied being mixed up in the affair. To a representative of this paper he said at the jail: "Murphy came to me in August Roth's saloon and told me he wanted me to meet a friend of his. Together we went down to Davis' barn, and there he called young Chance out the back way. As soon as we were all outside, he struck the fellow before I knew what he was about, and took the money out of his pockets. I was surprised and naturally excited, so I got away mighty quick. As sure as God is my judge, I didn't know that anything was coming off."

Wolfe and Chance were put in the same cell at the jail, and Chance corroborated Wolfe's story. He said: "No, Wolfe didn't have anything to do with it. Murphy is the one who did it, and the one who got my money. I came to town Saturday, drew $24 out of the bank to go to Indianapolis. I returned today, and had about $10 left out of the $24. Murphy knew I had it and followed me. When we walked out back of the livery stable I never had the least idea there was anything coming off until he struck me. He's a brute, that fellow is, and he will get 'his' for this."

Murphy left town as soon as he learned that the authorities were on to the robbery. At the hour of going to press, they are pursuing him with a horse and buggy, and the chances are he will be brought back and put in jail tonight.

When Wolfe was arrested this afternoon a large crowd gathered around the jail which nearly scared the prisoners out of a ten years' growth. The "old" prisoners thought a lynching bee was about to take place.

ENOS COFFIN TO BE CARTHAGE POSTMASTER

It is reported at Carthage that Enos Coffin is to be the next postmaster. Mr. Coffin has not yet received the appointment, although it is practically assured him. Mr. Coffin is a man well qualified for the position, and his appointment will be met with general satisfaction.

DIVILBLISS IS OUT ON BOND

After Being Arrested at His Home Saturday Afternoon
by Sheriff King

Roy Divilbliss was arrested at his home in Center township, Saturday evening by Sheriff King on a charge of assault with an attempt to murder Ed Steele, of that township. He was brought to this city by the sheriff and afterwards released on bond in the sum of $1500.

Both parties interested in the affair are men of families. Divilbliss having a wife and two children, and Steele has several children married. The case will come up for trial later.

ARTHUR CATT KILLED TODAY

Arthur Catt, a young man living on the Arlington pike, between Arlington and Carthage, was instantly killed late this afternoon in a gravel pit cave-in. He was the son of Harvey Catt.

RUFUS REMANDED TO COUNTY JAIL

Plead Guilty to Beating Board
Bill—Says He Did Not Have Money to Pay

Rufus Edwards was arraigned before his honor, Mayor Cowing this morning on a charge of beating a board bill. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and Mayor Cowing took the matter under advisement. He was arrested at the instance of Mrs. Susan Hayes, who conducts a boarding house on West Third street, west of the J. M. & I. railroad.

Edwards claims that he did not intend to defraud Mrs. Hayes, but that he did not have the wherewithal to meet his obligations.

YPSILANTI MAY ORGANIZE AGAIN

Talk of Club Rooms and a Dance
Hall Among the Old
Members

It is likely that the members of the old Ypsilanti club, which disbanded several years ago, will again organize. The movement was launched at a meeting held in Dr. Carl Beher's office last Thursday night. The object of the meeting was to make arrangements for an old time dance and banquet during the holidays among the members living here, and there was so much good feeling and enthusiasm manifested at the meeting that a permanent organization may be the result. They are now talking of renting quarters and fitting up club rooms and a dance hall.

HEIMS' DAMAGE SUITS

Claim They Lost Their Hands
in Answering Phone Charged With High Voltage

One of the most important cases of the present term of court will be called Wednesday morning. It is the $30,000 damage suits, instituted by Elmer and Nora Heims against the Indianapolis & Eastern Traction company, and the Jackson Telephone company of Greenfield.

The plaintiffs are husband and wife, and claim that they had their hands burned off, their bodies burned in many places and both claim to be crippled and disabled for life, through the fault of the two corporations mentioned above. The case was venued here from Hancock county.

Mrs. Heims says in her complaint that in answering the telephone early one morning last fall, taking hold of the receiver as usual, that she received a shock and could not let go of the instrument until released by her husband. In his endeavor to release his wife from the throes of the deadly current, Mr. Heims came in contact with it, and both lost their hands and received other injuries about the body.

They allege that the accident was caused by a trolley wire sagging down, the result of a storm during the night and coming in contact with the telephone wire, charged it all along the line.

Each of the complainants are suing for $15,000. The case will attract a great deal of interest, as the very best legal talent of three counties will bitterly contest the case.

GOLD WAVE HIT THIS CITY TODAY

Temperature Will Fall Twenty Degrees and Snow is Coming

The Weather Bureau sent out telephone warning this morning that a cold wave is due to strike this vicinity within the next thirty-six hours. A fall in temperature to 20 degrees is anticipated. Snow will fall. The cold wave is coming from the Northwest, where the temperature is 28 below in Manitoba and Montana.

The "wave" was felt in this city this afternoon. This morning the day bid fair to be a fair day with a tendency to get warmer, but no such luck.

The Rushville postoffice sold $931 worth of money orders Saturday. This is high water mark, save one other day in the history of the local office. A great deal of the money orders were bought Saturday by the "Hunyaks" who are camped near this city. The record breaker for the local office was the day the Wallace circus "paid off" in this city.

HINSHAW CASE MAY HAVE SEQUEL

Another Sensational Case May be Added to List—Charges Against Freeman

The Knightstown Banner says: There may possibly be a chapter added to the Hinshaw-Freeman case in Hancock county. It is understood that the grand jury may take up the violation of the civil law by Hinshaw and Mrs. Freeman at Shirley, as came out in the evidence at Hinshaw's trial before Governor Hanly. However, it is probable that the matter will be dropped, as Hinshaw is punished and Mrs. Freeman has become reconciled with her husband. The Banner learns that Freeman is charged with having broken up a home or two himself.

HOBOS RECEIVE SACK OF LEMONS

And Instructed by the Officers to

Lands

The five hoboes that were arrested yesterday when Marshal Price and Officer Pea threw out their net to catch the youthful horse thief, were turned loose this morning, after they were given a night's lodging and breakfast, and told to "get thee hence" from without the city. They were presented with a sack of lemons and a guide book of the soft roads going out of this city.

CAMBERN KILLED THREE DEERS

Some Wild Turkeys and Other
Game at Madison Parish, Louisiana.

Claude Cambern returned from Madison Parish, Louisiana, today, where he has been hunting for about two weeks. The hunting party was composed of nine persons and they killed nine deers, six wild turkeys, and a world of smaller game.

Mr. Cambern killed three of the nine deers, two turkeys and his portion of the smaller game. According to a base ball per centage table, he was batting a bay above the 300 mark. That the party had a good time goes without saying, and Mr. Cambern says it is by far the nicest place he ever hunted in his life. Mr. Cambern is not proclaiming his ability as a marksman, but he is very proud of the record he made—three deer in less than two weeks. Madison Parish is about forty miles west of Vicksburg.

DO NOT WANT TO OPEN THE HOME

Resolutions against the proposed change in the character of the Soldiers and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown, by which that institution would be made a receiving home for all orphans of the State without regard to parentage of the children, were adopted Friday evening by Joseph R. Gordon Post No. 281, G. A. R., in Indianapolis. Old soldiers of the State are making protest against the proposed change in the character of the home and resolutions of the same character as those adopted by Gordon Post are being adopted by other posts in the State.

MAY BRING MISS WISDOM HERE

Authorities Have a Good
Case Worked up Against Her Here

THE "UN-WISE" WISDOM

William J. Bryan Says She Misrepresented Facts About Being His Stenographer

Prosecutor Kiplinger is gathering evidence in the case of Dorothy E. Wisdom, who defrauded sixteen pupils in this city and who, it developed Saturday, duped people all over the country by the same methods employed here, and in event the Paris, Illinois, authorities do not make a case against the woman, she will be re-arrested and brought back here for trial.

Charles Pearsey, an employee at the Lake Erie depot in this city, resigned his position several weeks ago, on the strength of the promise Miss Wisdom made to him, when she said she would secure positions in Indianapolis for several of her students.

Mr. Pearsey, together with three young ladies, who also resigned their positions, made preparations to go to Indianapolis, and on the day appointed Miss Wisdom left suddenly for St. Louis—so she said, but she only went as far as Indianapolis—under the pretense that her mother was ill.

Miss Ethel Kuntz, who lives on West Fifth street received a letter from Miss Wisdom last Thursday. The letter was headed "St. Louis, Mo." and was mailed on a train so the postmark of a city would not be placed on the letter to disclose the whereabouts of Miss Wisdom.

And all this time she has been in Indianapolis, and here have been several students anxiously awaiting her return, in order to go with her to Indianapolis and secure lucrative positions, as she said, none were to work for less than $55 per month. Now these very same students are more than anxious for her return.

In some instances her methods were a "dead open and shut" swindle. Several of the girls only received seven lessons, when their term called for at least thirty-six lessons or six weeks of schooling. Those pupils who only received seven lessons, paid a tuition of $30, while the others only paid $25. Evidently Miss Wisdom saw how easy the game worked, and she raised the limit. Two of these young ladies, the Misses Mila and Laura Smith, who formerly lived in Jackson township, were in conference with Deputy Prosecutor Kiplinger Saturday afternoon.

The deputy prosecutor is of the opinion that he has enough evidence at hand to convict Miss Wisdom if she is not "handled" by the Illinois authorities.

A telegram from William J. Bryan says that he does not know the woman, and that she misrepresented things when she said she was formerly employed as his private secretary or stenographer.

She also misrepresented facts when she declared she would secure positions for her students through a typewriter concern in Indianapolis, whom she said she represented in that respect.

THERE ARE HONEST MEN IN THE WORLD

Here's a man who needs never have a fear of the "muck rakers" pen. Saturday, Albert Becraft, living near Glenwood found a purse on the down town streets, and immediately hunted up Marshal Price and turned it over to him. It was a neat little lady's pocket book and contained some money. Later Price found that it belonged to Miss Lucile Meredith, of West Ninth street, who lost it in the crowd Saturday afternoon. Who said the world was growing older and worse. Pessimists!

We saw a custom tailor in our store the other day studying pretty closely the many clever new style-ideas expressed so admirably in

Our Clothes

Of course he'll work these style-kinks into the clothes he makes for his customers. Good idea. Certainly no tailor could copy better models than those in our our clothes—no garments made are more correctly styled. If he has the skill to tailor clothes as well as these are tailored, why then he may be able to give you apparel good as our clothes. Of course, he'll have to charge you about twice as much.

TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION

Anti-Saloon League Moving Toward Absolute Prohibition.

Indianapolis, December 10.—The coming legislature will be urged to enact the most radical temperance laws that have ever been proposed in this state. Encouraged by former successes, the Anti-Saloon League hopes to be able to take a long step toward absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic by obtaining a county and city remonstrance law. With that obtained they will go before the legislature two years hence and ask for the enactment of a law giving the people of the state the privilege of voting whether or not the saloons shall be permitted to continue in business if a majority of the voters are against them. The situation is critical for the liquor interests. The latter, it is said, are not half as much concerned over the possibility of a high license law as they are about the county remonstrance plan. There is said to be a growing sentiment favorable to a higher license, but if there is an advance it is probable that it will not be placed higher than $500. Some of the more radical temperance advocates like Senator T. T. Moore of Greencastle, are in favor of asking for a county remonstrance law good for five years from the time it is filed. Others may try to have the burden of getting a license placed entirely on the applicant by forcing him to file a petition in his favor signed by a majority of the voters of the county or ward in which he wants to do business.

C. V. McAdams, member of the railway commission, says that under its law the commission is practically without power to compel the railroads to do anything. It has accomplished a great deal by acting more as an arbitrator than a judge. Mr. McAdams says that the commission wants more power and will try to get it when the legislature meets. The commission will not take part in the shippers' meeting Wednesday, as it must occupy a neutral ground before the public, but it is heartily in sympathy with the movement. Chairman Union B. Hunt of the railway commission, says that during the past week several delegations of gas belt manufacturers have called on the commission with reference to the shortage of coal in their locality. One told him that they knew of at least five big companies that are now preparing to remove to another location because of the failure of the railroads to give them sufficient fuel. One big glass factory employing 500 men and using an immense amount of Indiana coal, is now preparing to remove to another state. Some of the coal dealers here say that those factories would come to Indianapolis, where shipping facilities are better, but they have no assurance that they can get coal by coming. It is said that the feeling among the gas belt manufacturers against the railroads is becoming very bitter. Some of them, however, will have to grin and bear the situation, as they can't move their plants now. These manufacturers say they have been treated unfairly. When gas failed the railroad companies begged them not to change their locations, promising to furnish coal at a freight rate of 40 cents a ton from the Indiana field. Within a year or so they jumped the rate to 50 cents and now it is 60 cents, and the manufacturers are in trouble more than half the time over the fuel problem.

STORER REBUKED

Ambassador Whose Ambition Overcame His Discretion Gets "Called."

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY

Bellamy Storer's Recent Tactics "Confidential Pamphlet" Calls Down Vials of Executive Wrath.

In His Characteristic Way the President Goes at the Root of the Matter.

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Roosevelt has made public a long letter containing some 6,000 words, addressed to Secretary Root, giving correspondence between the president and former Ambassador Bellamy Storer at Vienna, and Mrs. Storer, in which he says that Mr. Storer's refusal to answer his letters and the publication of various private letters justified the ambassador's removal; that Mr. Storer's publication of private correspondence was peculiarly ungentlemanly and that he (the president) had stated with absolute clearness his position and the reason why it was out of the question for him as president to try to get any archbishop made cardinal, though expressing his admiration for Archbishop Ireland as well as leaders of other denominations. He says he thinks it well that the members of the cabinet should know certain facts "which he (Storer) either suppresses or misstates." He says he did not resent the action of the Storers "until it became evident they were likely to damage American interests."

The president says Mrs. Storer urged him to give her husband a cabinet place and that she stated Mr. Choate at London and General Porter at Paris were not proper persons to be ambassadors, suggesting her husband in that connection. The president incorporates a letter from Postmaster General Cortelyou contradicting the statement that President McKinley had commissioned a gentleman to ask the pope "as a personal favor to him" and as "an honor to the country," to appoint Archbishop Ireland as cardinal. Mr. Cortelyou says the late president never made any such request. The president declares that Mr. Storer's statement that he authorized any such message to be delivered to Pope Pius is untrue. He says that he never received a letter from Ambassador Storer giving an account of his visit to the vatican, and of the message he personally gave the pope on behalf of Mr. Roosevelt.

The president's action follows the publication of "the confidential pamphlet" which Mr. Storer last week sent to the president, the cabinet and the senate foreign relations committee, bearing upon the incidents leading up to the recall of Mr. Storer, and which was given wide publication. The president states that no hint or intimation of the Storer pamphlet containing the correspondence between the president and Mr. and Mrs. Storer was given out at the White House. The former ambassador, the president states, not only sent his "open letter" to members of the cabinet, but to at least a dozen members of the senate and house. He added that Mr. Storer had no desire to keep the contents of the pamphlet a secret and that undoubtedly it was his desire that the letter find its way into print.

"Nothing to Say"—Storer.
Cincinnati, Dec. 10.—Bellamy Storer, upon being shown what President Roosevelt requested the press to say in reference to the pamphlet containing the correspondence between the president and Mr. and Mrs. Storer, with an expression of surprise said: "Aha, I understand, I understand." Mr. Storer was asked: "Do you care to make a statement?" He replied: "No, I have nothing to say at this time."

OPEN REBELLION

Is Promised in France Under Unexpected Orders From Rome.

Paris, Dec. 10.—France today seems to face an alarming religious crisis. The report of the pope's eleventh-hour rejection of the government's final proffer under which Catholic worship could be continued under the common law, turns out to be only too true and the deadlock now is apparently complete. According to the holy father's orders, declarations under the law of 1881 are prohibited, but the parish priests must remain in their churches until driven out by violence.

The official confirmation of this communication has created a sensation, both in government and Catholic circles. Cardinal Lecot, archbishop of Bordeaux, Archbishop Germain and others who already had advised compliance with the law, have hastily instructed the parish priests of their dioceses that their former advice is null and void, and yesterday in all the churches of Paris, bishops and priests, after mass, read the letter from Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, communicating the decision of the holy see to "continue services in the churches, but abstain from any declaration," and Cardinal Richard's own instructions, in view of the order issued by the prefect of the Seine, not to permit for the present the employment of ceremonial draperies and marriages at funerals.

The church wardens, whose legal existence expires next Tuesday, were thanked Sunday from the pulpits of the various churches. Prayers were offered for the protection of God during the coming period of persecution.

The government regards the action of the pontiff as little less than a summons of the French Catholics to open rebellion, as rendering the situation exceedingly grave and possibly entailing the most deplorable consequences.

Premier Clemenceau and M. Briand, minister of public worship, were in conference all day Sunday. There is no sign of the government faltering, but it recognizes that it may be forced to resort to extreme measures. M. Briand said that the decision of the pope was entirely unexpected.

Militant Catholics are rejoicing at the stern attitude of the pope. A religious organ says the faithful can now face the future with serenity and "show the persecutors of the church that the 'Daughter of Eternity' disdains the efforts of wicked men and will triumph in the end."

Mi-o-na the Only Stomach Remedy They Sell in this Way

The guarantee given by F. B. Johnson & Co. on Mi-o-na stomach tablets means something. It is their personal promise that they will refund the money in case Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it in curing indigestion, strengthening the whole digestive system and restoring the health to those who use it.

If the head aches, if the back and sides are painful, if there is distress and nausea after eating, if you are sleepless, nervous, and out of sorts, you can with confidence get a 50-cent box of Mi-o-na from F. B. Johnson & Co., knowing that the remedy will cost you absolutely nothing unless it gives you freedom from all ills and pains and restores you to health.

No one thing is the cause of more suffering and pain than indigestion. Many cases of so-called kidney disease, heart trouble and nervousness are only different ways in which a weakened digestive system shows itself.

Use Mi-o-na stomach tablets and your ill-health will soon be gone, and you will forget that you have ever had indigestion or its resulting ills.

F. B. Johnson & Co. can tell you of their customers who have been restored to perfect health by the use of this remedy, but the best evidence of their faith in its powers to cure is the positive guarantee they give with every package, something that they do not feel like giving with any of the other stomach remedies they have in their store.

A BOLD SWINDLER

Forger Tricks Fulton County
Farmer to Tune of $1,700.

FALSE CHECKS ISSUED

The Fraudulent Outcome of a Deal
In Cattle Reveals a Long Line of Forgeries.

Many Farmers Throughout Fulton and Pulaski Counties Losers by Murphy's Operations.

Rochester, Ind., Dec. 10.—Report comes from Kewanna, a small town fourteen miles south of Rochester, of a bold swindle perpetrated by Clyde Murphy, son of a former trustee of Pulaski county. Some days ago Murphy purchased $1,800 worth of cattle from Patrick Hines, a farmer living near Kewanna. He gave as payment for the steers a check on a Kewanna bank for the full amount. Murphy then shipped the steers to Indianapolis, where he sold them for $100 less than the purchase price and pocketed the money, after which he left for parts unknown.

When Hines attempted to cash the check he found it to be worthless. On investigation Murphy's account at the bank proved to be only $700, and this amount was made up of forged checks. Further investigation revealed the fact that he has forged checks, notes and other papers during the last few months to the amount of $6,000. The losers are farmers scattered throughout Fulton and Pulaski counties.

Suit has already been commenced by those swindled out of their cash in the Fulton and Pulaski county courts. They are in the nature of affidavits of attachment against Murphy's half interest in some good Pulaski county real estate. The value of this property, however, will not cover the amount of his forgeries. Nothing is known of Murphy's present whereabouts.

GOVERNMENT'S GOOD WORK

Direct Benefit Accrues to Oil Shippers as Result of Prosecutions.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The annual report of Commissioner of Corporations James R. Garfield devotes special attention to the investigations of the transportation of oil and the operations of the Standard Oil company.

"During the investigation of the oil industry," says the report, "it was discovered that a very widespread system of railway discriminations existed in favor of the Standard Oil company, affecting a very large proportion of the country and resulting substantially in giving to the Standard Oil company an overwhelming advantage in transportation in almost all sections of the country; that this system had been in existence for a number of years and that largely by virtue of it the Standard had been able to restrict or eliminate competition throughout many parts of the country and thereafter reap the benefits of monopoly. The railway discriminations took various forms, often very ingenious in their nature, and so skillfully concealed that their existence was very rarely suspected even by the active competitors of the Standard, although such competitors knew that in general they were doing business at a disadvantage."

During the fiscal year indictments containing 8,193 counts were returned by the various grand juries, as the result of this investigation.

"A most striking and important result immediately followed the investigation of the bureau; the railroads cancelled substantially all the secret rates, illegal or improper discriminations, and in many cases the shippers of oil advise the bureau that for the first time in many years they are now rapidly obtaining equality of treatment from the transportation companies."

TURMOIL IN VENEZUELA

Castro's Continued Illness Bringing Things to a Crisis.

Fort De France, Martinique, Dec. 10.—Reliable advices received here from Venezuela set forth that President Castro was moved down to the little sea-coast village of Macuto, near Le Guayra, last Monday. The president is described as being very ill. He made the trip from Caracas in a bed. When he arrived at Macuto he appeared to be absolutely unconscious. It is generally believed that he has no chance of recovery.

Violently worded posters have been circulated in Caracas declaring that no one is today deceived regarding the gravity of President Castro's illness and insisting that the exercise of the executive power be assured through a vice president, as is provided for in the constitution. For a long time past, the poster continued, only routine government matters have been attended to and important questions are being held in abeyance.

General Paredes, an ex-revolutionary now in exile, is organizing a serious insurrectionary movement and declares that he will soon take the field. He claims to have 15,000 rifles at his disposition.

INVITES DISMISSAL

A Rhode Island Minister Steps Out Beside Crapsey.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 10.—Rev. Jos. Hutcheson, rector of St. Marks Episcopal church in Warren, in the course of a sermon Sunday condemned the decision of the high ecclesiastical court in the Crapsey case, endorsed Dr. Crapsey and his belief, and declared his readiness to stand trial on the issue in turn. In the case of Dr. Crapsey a high ecclesiastical court had decided that the clergy are forever barred against accepting the conclusions and methods of science of historical criticism insofar as they go against the creeds and liturgy of the Third century. "Today I solemnly and publicly protest against this finding. I assert that this court has misunderstood and misinterpreted the true function and spirit of the church. I cannot be silent and allow that noble minded priest in Rochester to suffer alone. I stand here ready for trial in my turn, and until tried and deposed I propose to remain here."

Tragic Incident on Streetcar.

Jackson, O., Dec. 10.—Sunday afternoon Elmer McNeal, a demented coal miner, armed with two big pistols, began shooting in a crowded trolley car, instantly killing Harry White, a young man employed at the D. T. & I. car shops; mortally wounding J. D. Van Atta, piano agent, of Newark, O., and severely wounding J. E. Kinnison, superintendent of the public schools of this city. After some half a dozen shots had been fired by the frenzied man he was thrown through the car window, and fatally wounded by a shot through the head.

WEEK IN CONGRESS

Various Important Matters Are Up For Immediate Consideration.

PARTISAN DISCUSSION

Will Mark the Consideration of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Bill in the House.

In the Senate the Opening Wedge Will Be Entered in the Case of Senator Smoot.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The national house of representatives will give the greater part of its time during the present week to the consideration of the executive, legislative and judicial appropriation bills, while the senate will pay especial attention to the report of the senate committee on privileges and elections on the right of Senator Smoot of Utah to retain his seat. In the house the appropriation bill was taken up today immediately after the close of the routine morning business, while in the senate consideration of the Smoot question was postponed until Tuesday. The senate proceedings on that subject will be interrupted after one day's discussion, to give place to the Algecras treaty, which is set for Wednesday.

Representative Tawney, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, is of the opinion that the legislative bill will be voted upon before the close of the week. There are a number of items in the bill which are calculated to provoke discussion, and it is expected that some of the Democratic representatives will find occasion to express their views regarding some of the features of the president's message. If they should do so, there will be a response from the Republican side of the chamber. Among the items in the bill which will arouse debate may be mentioned those providing for an increase of the appropriation for the payment of clerk hire for members of the house and the increase of the salary of Public Printer Stillings. There will also undoubtedly be many references to the subject of simplified spelling which will be raised in connection with the provision prohibiting any deviation from standard orthography in congressional printing.

The fortifications appropriation bill which is now under consideration in committee, will immediately follow the legislative bill, and Chairman Tawney is hopeful that it may be passed before the Christmas holidays. Chairman Grosvenor of the committee on merchant marine, is still hopeful of securing a favorable report on the ship subsidy bill in modified form this week, but it is not generally expected that further progress can be made with this measure before the Christmas holidays.

In the senate Senator Burrows will at the end of the morning hour on Tuesday open the debate on the Smoot question in a three hours' speech advocating the adoption of the committee resolution declaring Mr. Smoot to be not entitled to his seat. Mr. Burrows will make a comprehensive analysis of the testimony in the case, and will also cite many precedents in support of the resolution. He will be followed in the same line on Thursday by Senator Dubois, and later in the session Senator Smoot is expected to be heard in his own behalf. Senator Sutherland, his colleague, and Senators Foraker, Dillingham, Beveridge and Hopkins will also probably present views in support of Mr. Smoot's right to retain his office. There is no hope that the question may be concluded during the present week or even before the holidays, but Senators Burrows and Dubois express a determination to keep it as well to the front as possible.

Unless the unforeseen happens the Algecras treaty will be ratified on Wednesday after very brief consideration. The fact that the foreign relations committee has agreed upon a resolution declaring the purpose of the United States not to be involved in European complications by its acquiescence in the treaty has done much to remove opposition, and it is even predicted that the resolution of ratification will be adopted after a few senators shall have had opportunity to briefly explain their positions. Considerable time will probably be spent by the senate in executive session in considering nominations to be reported from the various committees. Among these are a number of cabinet officers.

There is already talk of adjournment for the Christmas holidays, and the prospect is that it will occur about the 20th inst., and that the holiday will continue until Jan. 7. The leaders who have been in conference on this subject say that abundant time will then be left for the passage of all the appropriation bills and for other necessary legislation.

Deed of a Distracted Mother.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 10.—When informed by the attending physician that her child was in a dying condition, Mrs. Becker of Hawley, near here, went into the cellar last night and shot herself in the head, dying four hours later. The child died two hours after the shooting.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Rushville Mothers Should not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys. The earliest warning is bed-wetting. Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles. To blame the child for its own distress. Seek to cure the kidneys—Save the child from deadly kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Mrs. Charles Petet, of 27 North Vine St., Shelbyville, Ind., says: I was sent to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills to give to my little boy, who was afflicted with nocturnal weakness of the kidneys, caused by an attack of scarlet fever. There has been no cessation of the trouble until I gave him this remedy, although we have given him other medicines and perscriptions, which failed to relieve him. Doan's Kidney Pills brought such prompt relief that I highly recommend them for children with weak kidneys."

AMUSEMENTS

"That Little Swede," a new play for our theatre goes comes to the opera house Friday night, December 12th. It is said to be one of those comedy-dialect melodramas suited to the taste of the popular priced circuits and was written especially with this view—to entertain the masses. There are situations that are sensational, lines that are bright, witty and humorous, and the piece is full of action. It is in four acts, which go with a dash from beginning to end. A Swede emigrant girl, a polished villain, a Irish policeman, the county sheriff and similar characters go to make up the cast, perience in the dramatic world.

A Delicate Throat.

Probably you haven't had any trouble for several months, but you may have now.

Cool nights and snappy mornings may bring unpleasant reminders of a delicate throat.

If you grow hoarse without any apparent reason, if any ugly little hack arises, you need

Raymond's Tar Cough Syrup

at once. It soothes and heals. Best of all it prevents those severe spasms of coughing which are so likely to produce soreness of the lungs.
